Nestled just off South Church Street, this family home presents an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking a residence with character and exciting renovation potential. Ideally located within walking distance to schools and only a two-minute drive to the heart of town, the property combines convenience with the promise of future value. Set on a generously sized, fully fenced parcel, the home features a distinctive wood log cabin-style interior paired with a marmoran finished exterior, offering a unique foundation ready to be reimagined and modernized to suit your vision. Inside, the layout includes three spacious bedrooms, highlighted by a private primary suite with ensuite bathroom, while two guest bedrooms share a well-appointed bathroom. The main living spaces include a kitchen, separate dining room, and a comfortable living area with pitched ceilings that opens onto a large patio overlooking mature gardens. The expansive outdoor space offers excellent potential for further enhancement, with ample room to expand the existing living areas, add a pool, or create an exceptional indoor-outdoor entertaining environment. Complete with a generous driveway and covered carport, this property presents a rare opportunity to transform a well-located home into a truly outstanding family residence in one of Cayman’s most convenient central locations.
