Centrally located, hurricane rated, second-floor warehouse/office space just minutes from the airport, offering excellent convenience for businesses operating in and around George Town. This well-positioned unit provides quick access to Fosters Airport, nearby shops, restaurants, and a wide range of commercial services.

The space is available immediately and easy to show, making it an ideal option for businesses seeking a practical, accessible location. This hurricane-rated building is well suited for archive storage, small operational teams, or businesses needing a secure and versatile workspace.

Due to LIMITED PARKING, this space is NOT suitable for high traffic, Church, Beauty, or Spa type businesses.
